

Frontier Airlines Announces Nonstop Service from Salt Lake City International Airport to Dallas-Fort Worth, San Francisco, and Ontario, Calif.

*‘Get It All For Less’ 3-Day Mega Sale on All SLC Routes;
Fares and Premium Seat Upgrades Start at Just $19 Each*

SALT LAKE CITY - January 23, 2024 - Ultra-low fare carrier Frontier Airlines (NASDAQ: ULCC) will begin nonstop service from Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC) to Dallas-Fort Worth (DFW), San Francisco (SFO), and Ontario, Calif. (ONT) in April of 2024. With the new service, Frontier will serve a total of eight destinations from SLC. To celebrate, America’s Greenest Airline is offering fares as low as $19* one way and upgrades to Premium extra-legroom Stretch seating starting at $19 per passenger, per flight segment.

“Connecting Salt Lake City to two of Southern California’s major airports and the exciting metroplex of Dallas-Fort Worth is great news for consumers across Utah as part of our new focus on underserved and overpriced routes,” said Josh Flyr, vice president, network and operations design, Frontier Airlines. “More affordable and convenient travel options are now available at SLC thanks to Frontier’s ‘Low Fares Done Right.’”

“Adding low-fare options to these California and Texas markets is a win-win for our passengers,” said Bill Wyatt, executive director, Salt Lake City International Airport. “We thank Frontier Airlines for their continued support and confidence in SLC.”

New service from Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC):
