SLC International Airport and Delta Air Lines to Unveil New Gates The first five gates and half of Concourse A-east Open May 16

What: Salt Lake City Department of Airports (SLCDA) and Delta Air Lines are unveiling the first five gates and half of Concourse A-east. The first flight out will be Delta's flight #394 to Atlanta.

When: Program begins Tuesday, May 16 at 5:30 a.m. Media should plan to be onsite at 5 a.m. to pick up a gate pass to go through security screening. TSA is requesting media and guests for the event use the Pre-Check Lane to expedite the screening process.

Where: -Concourse A-east. This is located in the airport's secure area and will require a gate pass from Delta Air Lines to access. To pick up a gate pass, go to Delta's Sky Priority ticket counter in the Gateway, which is located adjacent to the garage, on Level 2 across from the rental car counters.
-RSVP by Monday, May 15 at 10 a.m. to nancy.volmer@slcgov.com or Eric.zeugschmidt@delta.com

Who: Speakers:
-Salt Lake City Mayor Erin Mendenhall
-Delta Air Lines Executive Adam Ryan
-Bill Wyatt, Executive Director, Salt Lake City Department of Airports

Remarks followed by a cake cutting and the opening of a 45 ft. by 14 ft. curtain.

Media: The media parking lot will be open for the event. If full, park in the garage and request a validation from a member of the airport's MarCom team.
