

Atlantic Aviation Opens New Facility at SLC International

Atlantic Aviation opened its new FBO facility at the Salt Lake City International Airport on March 1. The facility consists of two, 30,000 square foot hangars and a 12,500 square foot passenger terminal. A Grand Opening event is planned for Wednesday, April 18 from 2 to 5 p.m.

Construction continues on the northwest corner of the Atlantic Aviation facility ramp where a $1.4 million concrete heavy aircraft parking pad is underway.

The hangars and passenger terminal are a large part of the $30 million dollars Atlantic has invested at Salt Lake International the past two years.

Aviation Open House to Focus on Aeronautics Careers April 21 at SLC Airport

An Aviation Open House planned for Saturday, April 21 will focus on careers in aeronautics. The open house will take place from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. inside the SkyWest Airlines Hangar located at 1129 North 3950 West at Salt Lake City International Airport.

Aviation professionals—including pilots, flight attendants, mechanics and ground crew—will be on hand and share information about their career path. There will also be opportunities to learn more about jobs in high-demand aviation and military careers. Information about local flight programs will also be available.

To access the SkyWest Hangar ramp, take Exit 25 on I-25, stay west on 2100 North until the road curves south into 4000 West. The SkyWest hangar is on the right hand side at the end of 4000 West.

Utah State Aggie Aviation Adventure Camps

Utah State University is planning Aviation Adventure Camps in Logan, Price and Vernal this summer. Thirty students are invited to learn about aviation safety and operations as part of the camp. Students will also have an opportunity to fly in a DA-40 aircraft and R-22 helicopter and take the controls. Camp dates and pricing vary by location. For more information, call (800) 538-2663.
