

MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 4, 2025

Contact: Nancy Volmer, SLC International Airport
(801) 209-5774

SLC International Airport to Host Art Open House

Artist Gordon Huether to Preview “Swallows in Flight” Art Installation

What: The Salt Lake City Department of Airports (SLCDA) is hosting an Art Open House to highlight the latest large-scale art installation titled “Swallows in Flight.” The installation hangs from the ceiling on Concourse B-west and is comprised of 2,051 swallow bird laser-cut acrylic shapes with dichroic film applied. Each swallow weighs 4 oz. with the complete installation weighing approx. 513 lbs.

In addition, the SLC DA offices will be open to the public to view the nearly 250 pieces of art on display that were once housed in the previous airport. Works by artists such as David Adams, Marianne Cone, Toni Doilney, Susan Gallacher, Anton Rasmussen, Douglas Snow, Trevor Southey and LeConte Stewart will be on display.

When: -Saturday, November 8, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.
-Media availability from 10 a.m. to noon.

Who: -Artist Gordon Huether will be available for media interviews and will be mingling with the public and travelers about his latest installation.

Where: -Salt Lake City International Airport
-Check in located at the Gateway located on the second level adjacent to the parking garage.

RSVP: Media must RSVP by Thursday, November 6 at noon with their legal name and date of birth to access the secure area of the airport.

Parking: The media lot will be open for the event.
<https://slcairport.com/pressroom/media-parking-area/>

#