SLC INTERNATIONAL TO MARK FIRST 365 DAYS Presentation of National Sustainability Award To Be Made

What: One year ago on Sept. 15, 2020, the Salt Lake City Department of Airports opened the first phase of The New SLC, which included a new parking garage, terminal and Concourse A-west. Six weeks later on Oct. 27, the remainder of Phase 1 was unveiled with the opening of Concourse B-west.

The SLCDCA Executive Director Bill Wyatt will join Mayor Erin Mendenhall to mark the first 365 days and announce a national sustainability award.

Who:

- Bill Wyatt, Executive Director, Salt Lake City Department of Airports
- Matt Needham, Director of Aviation and Transportation, HOK Architects
- Salt Lake City Mayor Erin Mendenhall
- Lisa Stanley, Director of Technical Services, U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC)

When: Wednesday, Sept. 15 at 11:00 a.m.

Where: Airport Terminal, 3rd level, The Canyon Overlook behind the Southwest ticket counters.

Media Note: The media parking lot will be open for this event. Media who choose to park in the garage instead will need to bring their parking ticket to be validated. Masks are required to be worn at the airport.
