

MEDIA ADVISORY

Contact: Lorie Dankers
TSA Public Affairs
(206) 743-1497
lorie.dankers@tsa.dhs.gov
@TSA_Pacific

FOR PLANNING PURPOSES

February 14, 2023

TSA, SLC officials to discuss high travel volumes around NBA All-Star Game, big ski weekend
Traveler preparation will be key to ensuring smooth airport and security operations

SALT LAKE CITY – Officials from the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC) will host a media availability at the airport on Wednesday, February 15 at 1 p.m. to preview what is anticipated to be a very busy end to the 2023 President's Day weekend.

With the NBA All-Star Game set to be played in Salt Lake City on Sunday, February 19 and local ski resorts busy with travelers from throughout the country, SLC could potentially have its busiest day ever on Monday, February 20.

Come learn what TSA and SLC officials have planned to ensure smooth operations. Also, learn how travelers can prepare for a smooth experience when departing SLC.

After the media availability, media reps will have an opportunity to get updated photos and b-roll of the TSA security screening process in the SLC security checkpoint.

- WHO: Matt Davis, TSA Federal Security Director for Utah
Bill Wyatt, Executive Director, Salt Lake City International Airport
- WHAT: Preparation for post-President's Day weekend travel volumes
- WHEN: Wednesday, February 15, 2023
1 p.m.
- WHERE: Salt Lake City International Airport
Terminal 3rd floor, The Canyon overlook
The media lot will be open for parking

###