

ECONOMIC UPDATE

UNEMPLOYMENT & GDP GROWTH

In May, Utah's unemployment dropped to 2.7%, among the lowest in the nation. Utah is also one of two states to have gained jobs during the month, up 2.3% over May 2019. Additionally, Utah experienced strong GDP growth between Q4 2020 and Q1 2021 at 9.2%, the second highest in the nation.

Source: BLS and Zions Bank

RECORD CONSTRUCTION

Utah continued to experience record construction during Q1 2021, up 37% YOY, with a total $3.4B in value. A surge in residential construction accounted for a record $2.0B in value, up 32% YOY, while non-residential construction made a comeback from 2020, accounting for $800M in value, the second highest on record.

Source: Kem C. Gardner Policy Institute

TOP CITIES FOR JOB SEEKERS

Salt Lake City recently ranked #1 for job seekers among large U.S. cities by MoneyGeek. The ranking was based on five economic factors, including job and wage growth, unemployment, housing affordability and size of labor force.

Source: MoneyGeek

TOP STATES FOR BUSINESS

In CNBC's 2021 study, America's Top States for Business, Utah ranked #3 overall, up from #4 in 2019. Among the metrics analyzed, Utah scored high in economy, infrastructure, workforce and business friendliness.

Source: CNBC

OUTDOOR RECREATION & TECH

Utah's tech sector is the fastest growing industry in the state, supporting 1 in 7 jobs. During a recent economic study, it was found that access to year-round outdoor recreation is the most important factor (55-62%) to tech employees when deciding to locate or stay in the state.

Source: Kem C. Gardner Policy Institute

SUMMER RECOVERY

SLC is experiencing a surge in passengers this summer! From June-August, available seats at SLC are scheduled to be 105% of 2019 levels, the highest amongst the top 30 busiest U.S. airports.

Source: Cirium

For more information, visit the SLC air service development website here or contact Nate Lavin at nate.lavin@slcgov.com