Flight Launches Between SLC and Asia

The first nonstop flight to Incheon International Airport in South Korea launched from SLC on Thursday, June 12 via an Airbus A350-900. The flight is operated by Delta Air Lines and its joint venture partner Korean Air. Passengers now can connect to more than 50 destinations throughout Asia, including Bangkok, Manila, Shanghai and Singapore. The flight provides one-stop access to about 80% of the world's total population.

Airport Awards and Recognition

- SLC International has ranked 9th on the Washington Post's list of 50 best airports in the country.
- The Newsweek Readers' Choice Awards voted White Horse Spirits and Kitchen third in the Best Full-Service Airport Restaurant category.
- The 2025 Airport Food and Beverage + Hospitality Awards announced Sunday's Best has won the Airport Casual Dining Restaurant of the Year Award.

The New SLC Update: We're On Our Final Approach!

The final phase of the Salt Lake Airport Redevelopment Program is moving forward with construction on Concourse B-east moving at a quick pace. Come October, 10 more gates, six additional concessions, a second Delta Sky Club and an America Express Centurion® Club will open.

New food and beverage concessions include Aubergine Kitchen and Moab Brewery, while retail concessions will feature Age of Aesthetics, Good Earth Market, Hudson and Utah National Parks.

In October 2026, Phase 4 will open with an additional 11 gates and six concessions. This will complete The New SLC Redevelopment Program totaling 94 gates and 101 concessions.
