EAA Holds Young Eagle Rally at South Valley Regional Airport

Experimental Aircraft Association Chapter 23 held a Young Eagles Rally at South Valley Regional Airport on Saturday, April 20. Approximately nine volunteer pilots gave 46 young adults their first free airplane ride. The Young Eagles program gives youth ages 8-17 their first experience in a general aviation aircraft. The program has flown more than 2 million young adults in its 25-year history.

Additional events are scheduled at SLCDA-run airports:
June 15 - South Valley Regional Airport
September 21 - Tooele Valley Airport.

For more information and to register, visit eaa.org.

TVY Construction Closures

Ramp construction at the Tooele Valley Airport began Monday, April 29 and will continue for 19 days. Closed areas include taxiway A3, taxiway A between the north and the south ramp and the south parking apron. Aircraft north of the closure will need to back taxi on the runway for a runway 35 departure.

Please check NOTAMS and plan accordingly.
