

Concessions for Phase 1 of The New SLC

When The New SLC opens in 2020, passengers will be wowed by the wide variety of retail and food and beverage options available to them.

The Salt Lake City International Airport (SLC) has selected food and beverage providers and retail shops for the first phase of The New SLC, opening September 15, 2020.

The first phase will consist of popular restaurants like Café Rio, Market Street Grill, Smashburger and Squatters. New concepts to SLC like Blue Lemon – located in the pre-security area – Fillings and Emulsions, Panera Bread, Pago, Granatos, Shake Shack and Silver Diner will make their debut at The New SLC come fall of 2020. There will be approximately 46, 734 sq. ft. of food and beverage in Phase 1, and 28,406 sq. ft. in Phase 2. For context, the current facilities house approximately 49,836 sq. ft. To see a list of restaurants selected for the first phase, click here.

Phase 1 will also include a mix of local, regional and national retail stores. New brands to SLC include Coach, Frye, The King’s English, Hip & Humble and MAC. Familiar retail brands located in the airport will also part of the mix, including Dufry Duty Free, No Boundaries and Utah! To see a list of retail stores selected for the first phase, click here.

Street pricing will be implemented at The New SLC for all concessions. This means passengers will pay the same price charged at locations outside of the airport.